Featured Teachers

New Faces

T.J. Bolin is our new science teacher for the high school. He attended Kaskaskia College and SIU-C. After finishing school, he worked on a grain farm for several years. Mr. Bolin is very excited to be finally starting his career in teaching! In his free time, he enjoys coon hunting and his Redbone Coonhounds. He is also very excited about the arrival of his and Mrs. Bolin's baby in April. Mr. Bolin resides in the Patoka/Alma area.

☺ Welcome aboard, Mr. Bolin! ☺

University/College Visits:

On March 23rd, Sandoval High School students will be visiting four area colleges. Students will tour all aspects of the university, getting a complete view of the college life. Freshmen will be visiting Eastern Illinois University in Charleston. Sophomores are going to Edwardsville to tour SIU-E. The Junior class will be touring SIU-C in Carbondale. Lastly, the Seniors are traveling to McKendree College in Lebanon.
